The following is a summary of a report, dated 14th/26th December, from a Palestine Arab source

Arab Military Activities in Palestine

(i) The Arabs are disappointed with the results of the last meeting of the Arab League in Cairo, and are eagerly waiting for the Mufti to complete his plans. They are disturbed because in their first clashes with the Jews they have met greater resistance and casualties than they expected. They feel above all that they are lacking in arms.

The Mufti

(ii) The Mufti's supporters believe that the Arab States have decided that funds for the defence of Palestine should be placed under the control of their own treasurer and not that of the Mufti. This is felt to be a serious threat to the Mufti's position. It is possible, however, that, by agreement between the Mufti and the Lebanese President, ~~asset~~ ^{asset} ~~may~~ ^{may} be appointed to act as a link between the Arab States and the Arab Higher Executive in financial matters.

Volunteers

(iii) Palestinians returning from Syria state that volunteering is disappointing and that the numbers under training can be numbered in hundreds. It is hoped, however, that the position will improve shortly.

2. The following is from our source ~~REDACTED~~.

(i) In Palestine, efforts are being made to reconcile factional differences and to suppress the activities of independent leaders claiming local authority.

(ii) Recruitment to the "National Guard" and to the Youth Organisation continues actively, but arms are in short supply and prices are high. This again has led to accusations of inefficiency against the Arab Higher Executive.

(iii) Rumours are current in Jerusalem that experienced Arab smugglers are to be recruited in Palestine to transfer arms purchased in Egypt by the Arab Higher Executive.

The Youth Organisation

(iv) Leaders of the Arab Youth Organisation are reported to be drawing up secret lists of persons considered due for service, but it is planned to carry out their call up by moral pressure and not by force.

(v) Sahri Waraka, a prominent Arab terrorist who escaped from Acre prison some months ago, returned recently to the area and is organizing a body of young men in the Hebron area.
